

CAUTION

BLUE-GREEN ALGAE (CYANOBACTERIA) BLOOMS CAN PRODUCE TOXINS THAT MAKE PEOPLE AND ANIMALS SICK.

AVOID WATER THAT:

IS DISCOLORED OR STREAKY

LOOKS LIKE SPILLED PAINT OR PEA SOUP

HAS FLOATING SCUM, GLOBS OR MATS

STEER CLEAR. | RINSE OFF. | WHEN IN DOUBT, STAY OUT.

If you or your pets have sudden illness or signs of poisoning following exposure, please call your doctor or veterinarian, or the Wisconsin Poison Center at 800-222-1222.

See the caution information in Spanish at www.avoidtheick.org

See the caution information in Hmong at www.avoidtheick.org

See the caution information in Somali at www.avoidtheick.org

This public health campaign is funded by the Wisconsin Coastal Management Program and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Office for Coastal Management under the Coastal Zone Management Act, Grant # NA24NOSX419C0009.

AVOIDTHEICK.ORG